

#LITFILMFESTCLASSROOMS: EL DORADO!

This 7 week #LitFilmFestClassroom project runs scheduled literacy lessons as follows. These have been released daily at 10:30am, but can be watched and used at home or school any point after that! The adventure will be based on our downloadable book, El Dorado! Each day is linked to the video!

Weekly focus	Monday Read and study features from the book (download)	Tuesday Practise writing studied genre and sentence work	Wednesday Write with support	Thursday Edit and capture	Friday Expand knowledge with professional writers
Week 1: Design own characters	Read the El Dorado ch 1 - create own group for movie	Study characters and create own focusing on adjectives	Write own de:de character description	Film a character profile	Guest author Emma Rae on creating characters
Week 2: Write a letter	A letter arrives - brainstorm ideas for a letter to your group	Study letter writing and relative pronouns	Write own letter	Film a short scene reading a letter with expression	Guest author Helen Peters on writing letters
Week 3: 4th May Write a diary	Study a diary from ch 2 - plan the next part of the story	Draft diary writing using if, then statements.	Complete diary using 3 ed sentences	Create freeze frames and record voiceover for diary entries	Guest author, Kirsty Applebaum, on point of view diary writing
Week 4: 11th May Write a script	Study a script from ch 3 - plan the next part of the story	Study script writing using emotion, comma sentences	Write own script	Film a number of written scenes using a variety of apps.	BUMPER EPISODE! Guest authors, Cath Howe and Caroline Lawrence, on writing scripts
Week 5: 18th May Write a narrative	Study a narrative from ch 4 the next part of the story	Study narrative writing using commas to write action	Write own narrative	Act and record voiceover of narrative	Guest author Tom Huddleston on writing narratives
Week 6: 25th May Create a story structure	Study story structure from ch 5 to write the next part of the story	Study story structure describing a position, place, subject and action.	Write own extended story from planned structure	Act and record voiceover of narrative	Guest author Eloise Williams, inaugural Welsh children's laureate, on writing story structure
Week 7: 1st July Revisit script writing	Revisit script writing to finish off the story	Revisit script writing and recap all previous sentence types	Write own script	Film a number of written scenes using a variety of apps.	Guest author, Alastair Chisholm, on finishing stories

Start your adventure at LitFilmFest.com/home-learning and subscribe to the channel at youtube.com/litfilmfest